A Word to Tea Drinkers.—The Pekin Tea Company, 75 and 77 Fulton street, have imported into this market some five hundred thousand dollars worth of the finest grades of green and black teas, grown in the Celestate Empire; done up in all the various fancy nackages, that Chinese ingenuity can invent. It is a privilege to buy teas af this great establishment and a luxury and a comfort to drink them. They sell good teas only, and retail them at wholesele prices. Country merchants who wish to always sell good teas can always obtain them at this place on reasonable terms.

The Pekin Tea Company, 75 and 77 Fulton st., are performing a great and good work, and will, in a few years, beyond all doubt, drive all the poor teas which have deloged this country, and defauted consumers of the article, out of this market. They import none but pure fragrant teas, and retail them by the single pound at wholesale prices. Families
